PARIS APACHE WILL DIE

On a Guillotine Unless Public Effort in His Behalf Saves Him. Charged With Murder.

(Herald Special.)
Paris, May 26.—A public movement is being made to save from the guillotine Jean Liabeuf, the "Apache" leader known as the "human porcupine," now under sentence of death for the murder of a police officer last January. The murder was actuated by revenge. A year or two ago Liabeuf was convicted and sentenced to prison on a charge of being a "white slave" dealer. He protested his innocence and swore to get revenge. Upon his release he dressed himself in a unique costume, studded with sharp nails, which was concealed by his outer garments. Thus accoutred, and armed with a revolver and knife, he deliberately sought to annihilate the police force of Paris. In the fights in which he engaged with them the police had their hands cruelly lacerated by the sharp nails in his armor. After a fierce and final battle Liabeuf was captured, though not before he had killed one officer and dangerously wounded six others. Notwithstanding this considerable public sympathy has been awakened in his behalf by the general belief that he was guiltless of the charge of white slavery and that his first conviction was a miscarriage of justice.

John D. Rockefeller would go broke if he should spend his entire income trying to prepare a better medicine than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is simply impossible, and so says every one that has used it. Sold by Bratton Drug Co.

I am now located at the Fair Grounds, where you may have your horse "broke" and gaited. See me for particulars. Hillary H. Padon. 1t
